Figure 1. Workflow. Grey lines and black lines are reads and reference sequences, respectively. Circle and square dots are SNPs and SVs. Square dots with grey and black edges are initial SV marks and final SV calls. Brown and green color in dots and lines are different haplotype. Luminance of the color is the confindence of the haplotype prediction. Parameters in step 6 are illustrated in Table 1.